

VACANCY – BIOMEDICAL SCIENTIST (Histology)

International Zoo Veterinary Group Pathology is looking for a Biomedical Scientist (Histology). IZVG Pathology is a department of the International Zoo Veterinary Group (IZVG), the largest full-time zoo and wildlife practice in the world. IZVG Pathology is a leading provider of post mortem and histopathology services for zoo, wildlife, exotic pet and aquatic species, and has been providing these for veterinarians, zoos and aquaria in the UK and overseas since 2003.

The position is based in Keighley, West Yorkshire in our newly-refurbished and equipped histology laboratory and post mortem suite. Part time working will be considered.

Responsibilities will include processing of routine diagnostic specimens and associated documentation, providing technical support for veterinary diagnostic post mortem examinations, development of departmental technical protocols, and liaison with other IZVG staff.

The successful applicant will require HNC, BSc or an equivalent qualification, preferably in Biomedical Science and ideally a minimum of 2 years working within a histology laboratory environment (but all candidates who can demonstrate the necessary skills may apply and will be considered), with evidence of competence in routine aspects of histological processing, and of underlying technical processes and instrumentation. It is expected that candidates will be comfortable working with veterinary cadaver material.

Additional experience in other laboratory disciplines including cytology, diagnostic microbiology, parasitology and post mortem/mortuary technique would be beneficial.

Salary will be commensurate with experience.

IZVG Pathology will provide support for appropriate training and CPD.

The closing date for applications is 3rd November 2017. For the application form and more information, please visit: www.izvg.co.uk/izvgnews.html

Please email your completed application form and CV to admin@izvg.co.uk.
